ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Circuit Judge.
We are authorized to announce T. F. OWEN, of Daviess county, as a candidate for Circuit Judge in the Sixth Judicial District, subject to the action of the Democratic party at the Primary Election, November 4, 1902.

For Commonwealth's Attorney.
Ben D. Ringo, of Ohio county, is a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney for the Sixth Judicial District, subject to the action of the Democratic party at the Primary Election, November 4, 1902.

Among the several unpretentious sheets of the Kentucky press, none is more ably edited than the Rockport News.

Reports say that the 17-year locusts are about to bid us good-bye, having made formal announcement of their appearance again in 1919.

Late photographs show President Roosevelt jumping high fences on his favorite steed. No doubt he is practicing for the great hurdle race of his party in 1904.

It is said that Mr. Roosevelt has recently purchased a Chicago dog-fancier a mind-reading pup. Spect the President is going to turn him loose on Senator Hanna.

We do not know that Hartford is addicted to love-making any more than other towns, but we can say that Dr. Ford has the finest sparking machine down at his office we ever saw.

At the commencement exercises of the Danville University at Danville, last week, the degree of LL. D. was conferred upon Gov. J. C. W. Beckham, Hon. John W. Yerkes and the Rev. Geo. F. Pentecost.

The Hopkinsville town clock has been stopped because the vibrations of the machinery were injuring the court house walls underneath. And so the Christian court's deliberations will proceed no more on tick.

If the trade of crimination and re-crimination between Mr. Bryan and Mr. Cleveland, and their followers, against the political methods of each other, would only cease, there would be bright hopes of a Democratic millennium.

Representative R. B. Bradley, of Hopkins county, is being pushed by his friends as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Secretary of State. Mr. Bradley is a prominent lawyer of Madisonville and made a good record during the last session of the Legislature.

Several prominent Kentucky lawyers have lately quit the bench for the pulpit. If more lawyers would get into the habit of substituting the Bible for Blackstone, while still retaining their legal practice, it would be a great improvement upon the results of the courts.

One of the guides at Washington the other day referred to the White House as the "Booker Washington Cafe." Teddy heard of it, gritted his teeth and sent the guide word that such reference was highly distasteful to the President and that he desired it omitted. Of course it was "cut out."

Hon. C. S. Walker, of Owensboro, has announced himself as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Circuit Judge for this (the Sixth) Judicial District. He is a well known lawyer of the Owensboro bar and a staunch Democrat. Together with Messrs. Owen and Birkhead, this makes three entries now in this race.

The fixing of the Democratic primary election for this judicial district for November the 4th next, was a clever idea, and it seems to suit everybody at all concerned. Being on the regular November election day, it will insure Judge Settle an increased vote, and affords fair opportunity for all present and prospective candidates.

The report was circulated in Washington last week that Senator Wm. E. Mason, of Illinois, was a candidate for the Republican nomination for President. "My platform," said Senator Mason, "will be sound money, protection, reciprocity and a promise to the Filipinos that we will not go over them against their will. Over and above everything else, I am for the Declaration of Independence." Of course no Republican would dare run upon a platform containing the two latter clauses, and consequently the Senator's boom was taken merely as a hot weather joke.

One of the good things which resulted from the work of the recent Legislature was the new advertising law, which went into effect last Monday and whose first appearance will be noted in THE HERALD today. This law touches upon the settlement of estates, &c. Formerly the Master Commissioner was compelled to sell land without this advertising, and the consequence was that on many occasions valuable real estate was sold for a mere pittance, only a few persons being aware of the sale. It is a fine protection for the interests of widows and orphans, and will be found eminently satisfactory to all concerned.

There can be but little doubt, from present indications, that Messrs. Roosevelt and Hanna will be the leading aspirants for the next Republican nomination for President. Senator Hanna deprecates the suggestion as to himself, but it is generally understood that his deprecation is merely an indication—that "Barkis is willin'." Mr. Roosevelt does not try to conceal his evident desire to succeed himself. These two men facing each other for the same honor, will mean a battle royal in the next Republican National Convention. All the power of his administration will be used to secure Mr. Roosevelt the nomination. Against this administration, Mr. Hanna will put in operation the great Republican national machine, backed by the power of the trusts. With the fight thus outlined, Senator Hanna would have a fine chance to win. There is little doubt that the majority of loyal Republicans are for Mr. Roosevelt, but it would be hard bucking against the machine.

One of our local ministers, in denouncing recently upon the iniquity of back-sliding Christians, said that the devil often tempted persons in these circumstances, impressing them with the idea that it was no use trying to be good any more—that they had already gone beyond the reach of redemption, and that they had better give up. Then the good man quoted that passage of scripture which says that a person having once tasted of the sweets of religion and fallen away, it is impossible for him to be restored to his former state, &c. Really, between such conflicting arguments, upon what ground is a poor, penitent, back-sliding soul to stand?

We sincerely hope that the Kentucky Press Association, which meets in Owensboro the second week in July, will get back, in a measure, at least, to its old moorings, and assume the duties of professional collaboration and business advancement for which it was instituted. Of late years the Association has been little more than a pleasure jaunt, in which only those who are financially able are permitted to participate. Even on this jaunt many have gone as representatives who never wrote an article for a newspaper or would know a composing stick from an em quad. Fun and recreation are all right, and by nobody more badly needed than the editor, but this happy occupation should not be permitted to monopolize the whole proceedings. The Association should be reorganized so that the whole Kentucky press, whether affluent or not, could participate with every assurance of mutual and lasting benefit.

In this issue of THE HERALD will be found the formal announcement of Mr. Ben D. Ringo for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney for this (the Sixth) Judicial District, subject to the action of the Democratic primary which is to be held on the 4th of next November. Mr. Ringo is so well and favorably known to the people of this county, and in fact the whole district, we feel that anything we might say would fall far short of a proper introduction. As a lawyer and a man of letters, thoroughly familiar with every point of his profession, Mr. Ringo is the peer of any man in Kentucky. His ability for the office which he seeks is unquestioned; his fitness in every way is conceded by everybody. His work in the Democratic ranks has been of an extent and nature that entitles him to the full confidence and support of his party. It is probable that he will not have any opposition in his party; in fact, it is generally admitted that his candidacy should close the race for that office.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and removing all impurities from the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for every case that it fails to cure. Send for free testimonials. Address: F. J. Woman Swallows a Pin.
MADISONVILLE, Ky., June 14.—Mrs. Lillian Jones, wife of A. R. Jones, of this place, swallowed a pin. She had two pins in her mouth and in some way let one slip down her throat. It seemed to hang in her throat, but the doctor got it loose and it was swallowed, leaving a scratch in the throat. It is believed she will not be further troubled with it.

Spring Fever.
Spring fever is another name for biliousness. It is more serious than some people think. A torpid liver and inactive bowels mean a poisoned system. If neglected, serious illness may follow such symptoms. DeWitt's Little Early Risers remove all danger by stimulating the liver, opening the bowels and cleansing the system of impurities. "I have taken DeWitt's Little Early Risers for torpid liver every spring for years," writes R. M. Eversly, Mondaville, W. Va. "They do me more good than anything I have ever tried." J. H. Williams.

Smallpox in Indiana.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 12.—The May bulletin just issued by the State Board of Health shows 697 cases of smallpox in sixty counties, against 878 cases in fifty-four counties in April. This is a smaller decrease than was expected. The State Board has ordered all cases of eruptive diseases in doubt, called smallpox until the doubt is settled. The Governor's report from thirty-three counties, early in the week, showed a 56 per cent. decrease. These reports are not borne out by the May bulletin.

The conditions in the river counties are reported excellent. All the health officers are active. The trouble is now farther north.

Rev. Maddox Granted a Divorce.

The Owensboro Messenger says: The Rev. D. J. K. Maddox was Friday granted a divorce from his wife, Nancy Maddox, who was restored to her former name, Nancy May. All of the parties are well known in Davies, Ohio and McLean counties, and at the time the suit was filed, there was considerable talk about the matter. Rev. Maddox was a widower and his wife a widow at the time of their marriage on January 10, 1899. Rev. Maddox has been engaged in the Baptist ministry for more than forty-five years and is well known throughout this district. The plaintiff alleged in the petition that his wife was untrue to him, and was guilty of such conduct as proved to him that she was not virtuous. He also alleged that his wife did not love him and that she often indulged in fits of the most violent temper, and finally, without fault on his part, they separated in the month of February, 1901.

Mrs. Maddox in her answer denied all of the charges made by plaintiff and set out that by the marriage contract it was agreed that none of his children by a former marriage was to live with them, but that he did allow one of his daughters to occupy the house, who was so quarrelsome and overbearing and because of the mistreatment by her and her husband, she was forced to leave and return to her home at Utica. She asked the court for alimony, but none was allowed.

Labor Troubles Break out in Manila.

MANILA, Monday, June 16.—The strikes here are growing general. The printers, the butchers, the tobaccoists, the hemp workers and the carriage makers, estimated in all to number over 7,000 men, are out. Isabella de los Reyes, who organized the strike movement, has become frightened at the conditions which have resulted from his efforts and has resigned the leadership. A dummy leader has been appointed in his stead, but the strikers admit that de los Reyes still issues all orders. The majority of the strikers tell their employers that they are satisfied with their present wages, which are to-day three times higher than they were before the Americans came to the islands, but that they must obey orders, as otherwise they will be killed.

A Real Friend.

"I suffered with dyspepsia and indigestion for fifteen years," says W. T. Sturdevant, of Merry Oaks, N. C. "After I had tried many doctors and medicines to no avail, one of my friends persuaded me to try Kodol. I gave me immediate relief. I can eat almost anything I want now and my digestion is good. I cheerfully recommend Kodol." Don't try to cure stomach trouble by dieting. That only further weakens the system. You need wholesome, strengthening food. Kodol enables you to assimilate what you eat, by digesting it without the stomach's aid. J. H. Williams, Hartford, Ky.

Fearless and Incorruptible.

The Owensboro Messenger says: Ben D. Ringo is to-day formally announced as a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney, and the Democrats of the Sixth Judicial district may esteem themselves fortunate in the prospect of having this fine young lawyer, able, eloquent, fearless and incorruptible, as their Prosecuting Attorney. He has made his mark at the bar. His private life is spotless. His career has been watched with pride as well by the people of his old home, in Davies county, as by those who have been in recent years more intimately associated with him in Ohio county. As Commonwealth's Attorney he would do his duty fully and creditably in all instances, and his party would make no mistake in nominating him.

"The Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Kentucky, issues policies incontestable from date of issue, together with loan values, cash values, paid-up value, and extended dividends. Mr. S. R. Dent represents the above company and has written all the best business men of Ohio county." 421

THE "DEACON'S" WORDS

WERE NOT APPRECIATED BY REPUBLICAN LEADERS.

Tried to Talk as He Was Told, but the Truth Would Out.

THE ROCK OF REPUBLICAN REPLY.

(Special to THE HERALD.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 16, 1902. Cuban reciprocity promises to be the rock which will inevitably rend asunder Republican harmony and leave a feeling of antagonism between the party and the chief executive. The best sugar Senators still adhere to their position and refuse to permit any measure granting reciprocity to Cuba at the expense of the beet sugar trust, to pass the Senate, while Mr. Roosevelt insists that he will veto any measure which provides for a rebate of the duties. The testimony of Mr. F. B. Thurber that he has received $2,500 from Mr. Havemeyer, President of the sugar trust, nearly $9,000 from the War Department, and various sums from other sources, to procure reciprocity literature, will prove a serious obstacle to the efforts of the administration.

A staggering blow was delivered to Republican claims in regard to the pacification of the Philippines last week by "Deacon" Buencamino, so called because of his activity in connection with one of the missionary societies now laboring in the islands. The "Deacon," by his own admission, holds a "fat office" in the employ of the Philippine Commission, was heralded as a typical example of the pacified Filipino and was brought before the House Committee on Insular Affairs to convince the misguided Democrats of the entire untenability of their views. However, while he tried hard to testify as his employers would have wished, he was forced to admit that the majority of the Filipinos, himself included, expected that they would, on the complete termination of the insurrection, be made a territory of the United States, and ultimately given statehood and the full protection of the Constitution. Government as a colony he characterized as "government of men" as compared with "government of law" as he described government under the Constitution. He predicted that a continuation of colonial government by Americans would produce results similar to those produced under the dominion of Spain, which had come to the islands with the most generous intentions, but whose colonial administration of Philippine affairs had resulted most disastrously. He declared that he would desert the Philippines forever if he believed they were to be governed by a colony beyond the time necessary for the reorganization as a territory. When Mr. Buencamino had completed this unwelcome testimony he was made to feel that he was by no means as welcome in the Capital as had been the case before he had permitted himself to disclose a few plain truths.

The old saying that "murder will out" appears to be receiving another verification in the Treasury Department. Some time ago Mr. Wilbur F. Wakeman, the appraiser at the port of New York, preferred the most sensational charges against certain silk importers and certain Government officials, who had been parties to the frauds. An attempt was made to suppress the charges. Lyman J. Gage, then Secretary of the Treasury, disapproved the investigation, took sides with the silk importers, discredited Mr. Wakeman and eventually recommended Wakeman's dismissal, which recommendation, as it was urged by influential New York politicians, Mr. Roosevelt acted upon, but as it turns out, against his own convictions. Mr. Wakeman being sure of this fact, forced the issue, with the result that Mr. Gage felt compelled to resign. Mr. Wakeman was not even content with this. He wrote to the President, who at first resented his letter, but subsequently ordered an investigation by a man whom he felt he could trust. As a result there has been received at the Treasury Department a report from this man—Wickham Smith—which is most sensational in its character, and rumor has it that several persons will find themselves in jail and a number of reputations will be severely smirched when the affair becomes public. The Treasury officials refuse positively to discuss the report, which they admit has been received, but the friends of Wakeman have already started a campaign looking to his reinstatement, which they regard as the only practical vindication and reparation for the injury already done by the action of Mr. Gage and himself. It is alleged that the Government has been swindled out of millions by the fraudulent importers and their friends in the Treasury Department.

An alternative provision, which follows the lines of the admission of Texas, is that Cuba shall be admitted as a State as soon as the terms shall be agreed upon by the governments of the two republics.

Primary Called on Regular Election Day.

The Democratic committee for the Sixth Judicial District met at Owensboro, Saturday, and called a primary election for November 4, that being the day upon which the regular election will be held, to nominate candidates for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney.

The primary election will be held under the Carroll law, which will necessitate the opening of two polls in each precinct on the day of the election. The estimated cost of holding the primary is about $1,200, distributed as follows: Davies county, $375; Ohio county, $375; McLean and Hancock counties, $175 each.

June 16.—Farmers are all smiles. We have had a good rain. Messrs. John Luckett, Chas. Gibbs and Herbert Luckett have gone West to spend a few weeks harvesting.

Miss Ora Hicks left yesterday for McHenry, Ky., to spend a few days visiting friends.

Mr. Logan Thompson is on the sick list. He left last Friday for his home near Paradise, Ky.

Mr. Andrew Duncan spent a few days in Louisville on business during the past week.

Mr. T. C. Brown was hurt last Wednesday by a loaded car of coal running over his foot.

Messrs. Logan Thompson and V. B. Southard have changed boarding houses again. Say, Southard, who is the best cook in town? You have tried all of them, haven't you? I believe this is about the 19th chance you and Thompson have made since you came to Luzerne.

Rev. W. D. Cox is holding a series of meetings in his tent at Depot Station. Some of the farmers have been cutting wheat during the past week and a general rush of this work will follow.

The picnic that was given in the grove between Luzerne and Greenville depot last Saturday, closed out a little seasonally to some of the people present. Late in the evening trouble presented itself and a free-for-all fight was engaged in by about five or six persons, some of whom received severe cuts and bruises.

Well, I am for Hon. Ben D. Ringo for Commonwealth's Attorney. I still hold my voting place in old Ohio county, and will come home and cast my vote, for I would love to see Ohio county on the list of Democratic counties of this State.

June 16.—We had a fine rain Friday night, accompanied by considerable wind.

Tobacco setting was the order of the day Saturday.

A very fine crop of wheat is being harvested in this section.

Mr. Henry Godsey, a son of John and Amanda Godsey, died this morning at 6 o'clock. Henry was just in his manhood and was loved by all who knew him. He and his brother James had bought a fine farm and pitched a large crop, but our Saviour called him from his earthly labors. The circle is broken; one seat is vacant, one bud from the tree of friendship is shaken. We cannot foretell who next may fall, but we should all prepare to meet the end. We sympathize with the parents, sisters and brothers, in this their sad bereavement.

Mr. Bryan and His Aspirations.

William J. Bryan, in the Commonwealth in a signed editorial, reiterates his purpose not to accept the Fusion nomination for Governor in Nebraska, and goes a step further by saying that he does not aspire to any other office.

The editorial is in the form of a personal address to former United States Senator W. V. Allen, who had proposed Bryan for the Governorship.

In it Mr. Bryan says: "I have no personal ambition to serve; there is no office to which I aspire. I am only doing, and I believe that in this way I can accomplish more in my State and for the United States, as well as for my political associates, than I could accomplish as a candidate for Governor, whether my candidacy resulted in defeat or in success. My candidacy is not necessary to defeat the reorganizers. While I expect to do all that is within my power to aid those whose determination to prevent the Clevelandizing of the Democratic party, yet the success of that effort does not depend upon me, or upon any influence that I may be able to exert. It depends upon a multitude of earnest, honest and loyal Democrats who, having seen the party once debauched by an abject surrender to plutocratic influences, will spare no pains to protect the party from another such humiliation and disgrace."
